The vessel being thus chartered, no time was lost in loading hor with the munitions of war contracted and agreed for. The first difficulty lay in inventing some mode of stopping the master's mouth, which was offected

by agreeing to give him a handsome douceur in the event of the rup being successful. This done, some of the cargo was shipped at Mucan; some was supped here under licenses purchased from the Mandarins at Canton, and Other dwelling Houses, used strictly | per Cent some was shipped here without any license as such and their Contents whatever. Mesers Landstein & Co. placed a Godowns, Offices, Shops, &c., and t ed to Tongsan. Whilst there awaiting orders. H. M. gun boat Janus espied the Pootung and anchored close to ber. The moster and the supercargo became alarmed, and actually bolted-why or wherefore we cannot say, clams of the charter above mentioned being Mozican $30,000 on one Risk.

This was done in this wise. It was not convenient for Messis, Lutkens to pay the money for the Steamer, and Mr. Whittell being most desirous to close the affair, took promissory notes for the emount, refusing promiseers notes should lie paid. This being arranged, Mr. Whittail allowed Boyal Insurance Company to reduce the rate of

PENINSULAR & ORIENTAL STEAM NAVIGATION COMPANY. NOTICE OF REDUCTION OF PASS.

AGE MONEY.

YN the year 1857 the Directors made a considerable reduction in the Ocmpany's rates of Passage Money, which continued in force till 1881. In that year, owing to the extraordinary rise in the Cost and Freight of Coals, and the cahanced price of all descriptions of Naval Stores, the Directors were reluctantly compelled to return to the rates of Passage Money previously in force They are now happy to state that a decrease in the price of Coal and other expenses of Steam Navigation enables them to reduce the Company's Passage rates to the undernoted scale, which will take effect from and after the 1st June next, viz :-From Honglong to:-Southampton. Reserved Rates for Bingla Persons.
